HELP THE 3,000
UNACCOMPANIED
CHILD REFUGEES

Imagine if there were 3,000 British kids who had fled famine and war in the UK, made their way across the Channel and walked towards Switzerland to seek asylum, only to find the door slammed shut in their faces.

Most parents would be horrified if their children were faced with such inhumanity. But this is the situation facing thousands of unaccompanied children currently living in refugee camps across Europe.

Because of public pressure, the government will let in more child refugees, but how many? We need to keep fighting to ensure the safety of the 3,000 children who are waiting to be granted entry.

Keep up the pressure, sign the petition: Save Lone Child Refugees in Europe at www.change.org
